The French & Andrews Fruit Farm

HOME OF MRS. JENNIE V. ANDREWS ON DETROIT STREET.

Our regular readers will recall that, a century ago, our Lakewood Masonic Temple Company was incorporated and immediately set to work on three important tasks—raising funds, finding a building site and engaging an architect for a new Masonic Temple in the recently incorporated and growing City of Lakewood.

Wasting no time, the Board of Directors, including Nelson Cotabish, the City's first mayor and a real estate buff, investigated the McMyler, Wager and Andrews sites as well as property at the corner of Cook and Detroit. The purchase of the Andrews property was cemented on December 16, 1912, when the Board accepted Frank Andrews' counter-proposal of $65 per foot with the restriction that any building between Andrews and French be set back not less than 40 feet from the Detroit sidewalk line and 20 feet from the sideline.

The present day view of our Lakewood Masonic Temple and the adjacent Lakewood Plaza shopping strip gives no indication that the property was once the site of Mrs. Virginia (Jennie) Harron Andrews' family farmhouse, behind which was once the 80-acre French & Andrews fruit farm encompassing the land north of Detroit Avenue to Lake Erie between Lakeland and Andrews Avenues. Virginia and Edwin had four sons who all worked on the farm and helped build Lakewood's reputation as a prosperous fruit-growing center in the second half of the 19th century.

According to clevelandhistorical.org, Price and Rachel French were among Rockport Township's (as Lakewood was then known) earliest settlers, having arrived in 1818 after travelling west from Vermont to Rockport to farm its cheap, abundant land. Price constructed the first brick home in Lakewood at the southwest corner of Wyandotte and Detroit Avenue. The French's oldest son Collins eventually took over his father's farm and also became a trustee of Rockport Township. Collins and his wife Rosetta had no children of their own but adopted Rosetta's niece, Virginia Harron, calling her Jennie (Virginia Avenue was later named after her). Virginia married Edwin Andrews, who became Collins French's business partner.

The Andrews home on Detroit Avenue, built in the 1850s, was torn down in the late 1930s to make way for the Mars Shopping Center (now Lakewood Plaza) and its parking lot. The orchards had been converted into residential developments around the turn of the 20th-century as Lakewood's population rose and the city became more suburban.

Including Our Foundation in an Estate Plan

It's easier than you may think to include our Lakewood Masonic Foundation in your will. Your bequest can be included in your will itself or added later as a codicil (a legal addendum).

In your will it's important to precisely name the individuals and organizations you intend to benefit. By avoiding generalities you can ward off confusion or possible litigation.

We would be pleased to know of your intended bequest ahead of time so that we might recognize your generosity. Your commitment might encourage others to do the same.

While there are various ways to bequeath gifts to our Lakewood Masonic Foundation through your will, each with varying tax consequences, the simplest approach is an outright bequest. The wording can be as simple as:

"I, [name], of [city, state, ZIP], give, devise and bequeath to the Lakewood Masonic Foundation [written amount or percentage of the estate or description of property] for its unrestricted use and purpose."

You may, of course, choose to name either our Temple Company or our Endowment Fund instead of or in addition to our Foundation. In such cases you should specify the "Lakewood Masonic Temple Company" and/or the "Lakewood Masonic Temple Endowment Fund."

Your bequest to our Lakewood Masonic Foundation will enable us to carry on our important work of historic preservation, charity and education. Other than printing, mailing and very minor administrative expenses, all Foundation monies are used to support our underlying purposes.

Gifts and bequests to our Lakewood Masonic Foundation are exempt from federal income and estate tax purposes to the extent permitted by law. However, gifts and bequests to our Lakewood Masonic Temple Company or our Lakewood Masonic Temple Endowment Fund are not tax-deductible. As always, we encourage you to consult with your attorney and/or tax advisor before making any major gift.

Lakewood Masonic Temple Parking Lot

Because of the foresight of our predecessors, we are fortunate to have our own parking lot behind our Temple. Our members and visitors have every right and are welcome to park in our lot while attending meetings and activities in our Temple. Our members and visitors continue to have the right to use the adjacent shopping center parking lot for overflow parking while attending meetings and activities in our Temple; however, in such cases please do not park in shopping center spaces unless our own lot is full.

Please note that we lease parking to other organizations when we have little or no activity taking place in our facility, most especially to our longtime neighbor the Latvian church that has no parking of its own. Please extend every courtesy to such guests.

Master's Message

Brethren:

Here we are in the midst of another season of Masonry, and with it, a new line of officers and Master. Clever, thank you for your service and guidance this past year. You have inspired me to be a better Mason. Also, thanks to Bob N., John W., Rich W., Ron F., Ken M., Bob T., Bob W., and Bill R. You were there to guide me through my degrees, and I will never forget it. Lastly, a message to our newly installed officers and members: One of the first lessons that I learned in Masonry is that you must ask your Brothers for help so that we can work together to improve ourselves.

Brethren, the state of our Lodge this year is promising. We are flush with bright new members who are both talented and eager. I am very much looking forward to working with them and the veteran Lodge members.

My hope for this year is that everyone can expand on their understanding of Masonry; also, to better our ability to work together and form stronger bonds with each other. I consider that to be part of our rights and benefits as Masons.

Finally, I wish to mention how in awe I am when I think of the many great men who have stood in the East before me, many of whom are in Lodge with us frequently. I believe that, together, we are going to have a great year.

Master's Message

This new year of 2012-13 in Lakewood Lodge #601 is set to be exciting and enlightening. The Brethren are ready to reach out to more people, learn more Masonic knowledge, build more relationships and embrace the spirit of the new theme of "Together we can . . ." We have many new objectives that span across the spectrum of good Masonic direction and will set our course to navigate to the next level of Brotherly Love and Fellowship with our Lodge members and Masonic family abroad. This year will be the first official and new committee for electronic networking which covers social media like our web site and Facebook and is coincidentally what the 22nd District leadership has identified as a vital part of the sustainability tools for the Lodges of today and tomorrow. Please join us in our next gathering or in a future Lodge meeting. We also look forward to offering our assistance to our fellow Brethren in this new Masonic season.

Happy Holidays from all in Lakewood Lodge #601.

Matron's Message

Sisters and Brothers and friends of Ann Rutledge Chapter, we had our 92nd Annual Installation on October 20; and John Whitehouse, Jr., and myself, Joan Bechtold, are honored to the Worthy Patron and Worth Matron for the next year. Our motto is BE THE LIGHT. We will be honoring the station of Martha; our emblems are the fern and white rose. We will be extending a Welcome to new members to our Chapter and our Lakewood Masonic Temple. We have many interesting activities planned for this year. At our last meeting we had a Bee Keeper explain how he keeps bees. Our December is also busy with a trip to the Cleveland Christian Home after a short meeting. The end of December we will be having our Christmas party. January brings Obligation night and new changes from General Grand Chapter. Our second meeting in January will be a speaker from the Hospice of the Western Reserve, Rev. Chuck Behrens. In February we will have Initiation, so start looking for candidates who can share our wonderful Order. The second meeting in February we will be having someone from the Gathering Place to be our speaker. During this Holiday Season, please remember our Lakewood Masonic Temple in which we are so pleased to meet. It takes money to keep our Temple at peak shape, and I am personally proud that Ann Rutledge Chapter contributes to that through many years and has a definite place in the community of Lakewood. Thank you Sisters and Brothers of Ann Rutledge Chapter #453. We look forward to seeing you in the new year.

Cunningham Chapter #187 R. A. M.

Stated Meeting Third Wednesday 7:30 p.m. • www.cunningham187ram.org

High Priest's Message

Companions:

Cunningham Chapter will have a busy year, and that is a very good thing! Our greatest need has been to build membership to overcome some recent declines. Thanks to Dave Foyer for bringing seven candidates who seek to learn more about our beloved craft. Aside from the seven just mentioned, we have two others that have come to Cunningham to continue their path in Masonry. One of those candidates received his Mark Master Degree at Oberlin's Inspection on Monday, October 12; and Grand High Priest Donald W. Owens was present for that event. The rest of our candidates received their Mark Master Degree at a Special Meeting of Cunningham Chapter on Monday, October 19. Several other Chapters helped us confer that degree. The candidates then received the Past Master Degree at Cunningham's Stated Meeting on Wednesday, October 21. Their journey will continue with a Most Excellent Master and a Royal Arch Degree which are scheduled to take place in other Chapters before the end of January, thanks again to the efforts of Dave Foyer. It is no small task to handle the logistics of getting nine candidates all four degrees in proper order and prior to end of January. It was my intent to help in this effort, and then Hurricane Sandy hit, and I was without power for nearly six days, without telephone service for eleven days and without email for two full weeks! Without Dave to carry this forward in my "absence," it would not have been possible for us to have made this happen. It takes all of us working together.

At Oberlin, the Grand High Priest spoke of his program for the year, which is based upon Ritual, Education and Membership. Cunningham has always been good with ritual, and we intend to continue that tradition. Education? Dave Foyer has been providing educational talks at every meeting. Again, thanks are due for that effort as well. With regard to membership, the Grand High Priest stressed three factors: Restoration, Retention and Renewal. I'm not sure how effective we can be at restoration of lapsed members, but we've always been good at retaining the members we have. Again, we accomplish the renewal objective by the nine candidates who have come our way this year.

Most of our new candidates receive this newsletter. To them, I say that you have taken the first step in the York Rite journey to gain further perspective on the lessons that you were taught in Lodge. Some refer to York Rite as the "American Rite." Perhaps we will explain the reason for this in one of our future educational talks. We welcome each of you to a great Chapter that has a strong history going back to the very founding of our Temple. As you progress, you will learn that our Temple was constructed specifically to serve as a York Rite Temple and most especially for the Royal Arch Chapter. We are most fortunate, indeed, to be able to meet in a

To all of you from the Companions of Lakewood Council, may you have the happiest holidays and best wishes for a terrific New Year.

We will have a busy time during and after the Holidays. There are Inspections to attend and, of course, our own to prepare for. Our December and January meetings will be practices for our Inspection in the Royal Master Degree. We will have eight (that's right—eight) candidates, and we want to do our best.

It's important to make as many Inspections as you can (see the schedule below). It is really nice when a lot of folks reciprocate and come to our Inspection. Don't forget Penn-Ohio Day on January 26 at Youngstown at which Ohio will confer the Royal Master Degree.

So enjoy the holidays, rest up and be ready for the New Year.

Commander's Message

Once again I have received the honor of being chosen to serve as Commander of Holy Grail Commandery. I want to thank all of the Sir Knights of Holy Grail for your confidence in me.

Masonry is one of the finest organizations that a man can belong to. To be called a Mason is one of the highest honors that a man can receive. Within the organization of Freemasonry is an organization called Knights Templar. If you are a member of the Knights Templar you belong to an organization that is one of the pinnacles of Freemasonry.

We all know of members of Holy Grail that haven't been to a meeting for a while. Ask them to attend a meeting; and, if necessary, offer to pick them up and to take them home. The officers of Holy Grail have worked hard during the past year, and I know that they will continue to do so in the upcoming year. I'm asking each Sir Knight of Holy Grail to please plan on attending a meeting of Holy Grail Commandery in the upcoming year.

Moral Law

"A Mason" say the old charges of 1722, "is obliged by his tenure to obey the Moral Law." Now this moral law is not to be considered as confined to the Decalogue of Moses, within which narrow limits the ecclesiastical writers technically restrain it, but rather as alluding to what is called lex naturæ or the law of nature. This law of nature has been defined, by an able but not recent writer on this subject, to be "the will of God, relating to human actions, grounded on the moral differences of things; and because discoverable by natural light, obligatory upon all mankind." This is the "Moral Law" to which the old charge already cited refers, and which it declares to be the law of Masonry. And this was wisely done, for it is evident that no law less universal could have been appropriately selected for the government of an Institution whose prominent characteristic is its universality.

facility specifically designed to meet the needs of a Royal Arch Chapter. Thank you all for helping us maintain this Chapter as a vital part of Masonry in Lakewood. To each of you, I repeat what you have so often heard ... what you get out of Royal Arch Masonry is a direct function of what you put into it. To that end, I encourage your attendance and participation.

The officers of Cunningham Chapter extend to each of you our best wishes for the holiday season.

Lakewood Chapter Order of DeMolay

Stated Meetings First & Third Thursdays 7:30 p.m. • www.lakewooddemolay.com

Lakewood DeMolay meets on the first and third Thursday of each month, and all Masons are encouraged to visit at any meeting. Membership is open to young men aged 12 to 21. No Masonic affiliation is required for membership other than to be sponsored by a Mason. If you know of a young man who would be a good DeMolay and who would enjoy the great experience that is DeMolay, please contact Chapter Advisor Dad Craig Haskett at 440.892.1738 or bvhomeloans@yahoo.com. Many of our older members left for college or the military this past year, so our need for new and younger members is particularly great. We especially invite Masons to our semi-annual Inspection on Thursday, February 21, at 7:30p. Our young men are always encouraged by your presence.
